

LABOR BODIES NOT TO GIVE PLAN TO SETTLE STRIKE

Declare Proposal Must Emanate From Rail Factions

VIOLATION WILL BE DETERMINED
Board Holds Hope For Settlement of Dispute

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—An expected as a railroad in a desert, regulations permitting manufacture and use of beer for medical purposes were issued today by the Treasury Department.

Without delay March 3, when the former Attorney General Palmer held the use of beer as a medicine to be legal under the prohibition laws, the Treasury Department announced that it was surprised to find that the dry forces who declared there had been an understanding with the Treasury, the new rules should not be promulgated until the Senate had acted upon the anti-beer bill.

Issuance of the beer regulations will cause redoubled efforts to effect passage of the anti-beer bill. Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon league, described the Treasury's action as "less defensible than at any other time."

Secretary Mellon in announcing the beer rules, declared "the legal rights of the parties concerned being plain, the department is unable longer to delay issuance of these regulations."

The new rules cover comprehensively the use of beer, wines and spirituous liquors as medicines. The amount of beer a physician may prescribe is limited to 3-1/2 gallons, equivalent of a case, but no arbitrary limit is placed upon the number of such prescriptions a physician may write or the same person may obtain within a given period.

Two quarts of wine was the limit put on a single prescription for that beverage, but otherwise the regulations are the same as for beer.

Spirituous liquors are limited to one pint within any ten day period and alcohol for external use was limited to a pint in the same person at one time.

Prescriptions for these medicines must be filled only by a licensed pharmacist who is also a retail druggist, or a licensed pharmacist in the retail drug store.

Not Refillable
Prescriptions are not refillable and the regulations declare a pharmacist should refuse to fill any prescription for liquor if he has any reason to believe that physicians are prescribing for other than medical uses or that a patient is securing through one or more physicians quantities of intoxicating liquor in excess of the amount necessary for medicinal purposes.

In connection with issuance of prescriptions, the regulations set a greater quantity of intoxicating liquor than is necessary for use as a medicine by a person for whom prescribed in the treatment of an ailment from which such patient is suffering.

Information that the labor board would go into the conference with any specific plan came after an announcement from the board that the presidents of the big four war-railroads in a telegram to the board, asking for the strike, could not be postponed although it might be settled. They also declared that the rail crisis was unchanged.

Message Significance
The board's decision was looked on by labor members as significant in view of the fact that they have not been successful in letting it be known that they were the hearing to drag out for some time and are depending on the union chiefs to let their order not to permit a strike pending a decision from the conference. This decision, they said, undoubtedly would be rendered until after October 26.

It was explained at the board's offices that the hearing probably would be opened on Monday morning, from Judge R. M. Burton, chairman, telling why the conference was called and outlining the board's desire for further information. The board will also both sides of the present situation, following which board members will begin cross examination of both rail and union chiefs, it was said. ALCOHOLIC BEER FOR MEDICAL USE TO BE PERMITTED

Issue Regulations Providing For Manufacture

IRISH PEACE GATHERING CRISIS STILL APPARENT
De Valera's Message Held Grave Challenge By Lloyd George; Hope Situation Can Be Compromised

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The first crisis in the Irish conference, caused by Eamon De Valera's assertion of Ireland's independence in his message to Pope Benedict last week, is expected to be settled today, it is believed, but there are some who think it may be unsmoothed over or compromised.

Representatives of the British government and of the Dublin conference met nearly three hours today, and this question today session that it was the conference. The government is understood to have placed before the Sinn Fein delegates its declaration that Great Britain will deal with Sinn Fein Ireland only as a part of the British empire and not with representatives of the Sinn Fein as plenipotentiaries of an independent republic.

Premier Lloyd George made the government's policy clear to the House of Commons. He said Mr. De Valera's message was a "grave challenge" that the government's position on the conference was "unimpaired" and that there was no clear precedent on any other basis.

HOLD ATTORNEY IN OBENCHAIN CASE JURY 'FIXER'

Disbarment Is Asked In Superior Court By Woolwine

DECLARED UNFIT TO PRACTICE LAW
Erbstein Is Classified As Reckless Gambler By Hayne

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24.—Thomas Lee Woolwine, district attorney of Los Angeles, in the court of Superior Judge Sydney N. Reeve here today offered "vigorous and unqualified" objections to the granting of a continuance to Charles Erbstein, of Chicago, of appearing as attorney for Mrs. Madeline Obenchain, charged with the murder of J. Benton Kerner.

"I believe him to be a person wholly unfit to practice law at this bar," District Attorney Woolwine declared.

"His reputation in Chicago is of the very worst, being that of a trickster, a jury fixer and a subverter of perjury."

This was part of a 700 word prepared statement, which District Attorney Woolwine read and had placed in the court record as objection to a motion that Erbstein be permitted to appear in behalf of Mrs. Obenchain.

This occurred when the court called the case to hear final arguments on a motion that separate trials be granted Mrs. Obenchain and Arthur Birch, who is jointly charged with the murder of Kerner.

A telegram from Maclean Hayne, former state's attorney for Cook county, Illinois, was read by Woolwine concerning Hayne's knowledge of Erbstein. Hayne's telegram, as read into the court record, was as follows:

"I am a very unbecoming crook, a fixer and subverter of perjury. I have been indicted twice and acquitted both times. A reckless gambler. Will write you if I ever get out of jail."

Erbstein was heard by the court in answer to the charges. Voicing a protest that these charges were made by a man who was not a lawyer, he referred to the charges of "trickster" and said that he believed this charge might be applied to the prosecutor.

"I am a very unbecoming crook," he said, "and every judge in the courts of Chicago will laugh at me and my character, and I am convinced that body of gentlemen will vindicate me of these charges."

"It was so totally unexpected, that I am not sure that Mr. Woolwine's attack on me was not a mistake."

Erbstein was heard after the charges were made by District Attorney Woolwine.

"The substance of the matter by announcing that it would come before the Los Angeles Bar Association and be determined in due course, Judge Reeve called for an answer from the district attorney to the charges."

District Attorney Woolwine made an unexpected move when he announced that he had no objection to Erbstein's appearance in the case, but that he would not grant separate trials to Mrs. Obenchain and Birch.

57 Eviction Suits Filed Against Men
BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Oct. 24.—Fifty seven suits to eject "trickling" oil workers from houses occupied by them were filed today in the Superior court of Kern county here.

These, with the suits filed last week, call for the removal of practically all strikers now living on the properties of these companies. The complaints all have attached copies of agreements with the oil companies, which they will enforce by action on demand and without the usual statutory notice. The filing of these suits was the only development in the oil strike situation that has been the field of the San Joaquin district since for more than six weeks. The district court of the oil workers was in session all day, but gave out no word of its deliberations.

U. S. Senator From Arizona Is Indicted

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 24.—An indictment against Ralph H. Cameron, United States Senator from Arizona, was returned by the federal grand jury at the last term of the United States district court here, according to a brief entry made in the minute book of the court today.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Senator Cameron tonight had received no word of an indictment against him in Arizona, but he understood "certain political foes" had made efforts to obtain an indictment against him for alleged improper and excessive use of money in his election. He added he was prepared to disprove any such charges if brought formally.

FORD OUTLINES HOW HE WOULD RUN RAILROAD

Declares Lawyers Are Only Burden To Roads
Small Stockholders Are Called 'Parasites' In Story

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24.—Henry Ford, writing in the official publication of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, tells how he would run a big railroad.

First of all, he says, he would get rid of the individual stockholder, whom he considers as parasites, then he would turn to higher rolling stock and finally "fire useless employees, especially the lawyers."

Finance, as it applies to railroads, he says, is a failure, and the railroads spend money needlessly in real estate, particularly in advertising.

"Real purposes of a railroad," he writes, "are to serve the public. There is no reason why it should be diverted from that service and set to making money into the pockets of stockholders who make no contribution to the road's actual operation. The public pays these dividends. They are a tax on the people."

"There is a feasible and practical system of financing railroads by which these contributing money will be in positions to add directly to the success of the undertaking. If the money is to be used for the benefit of the stockholders, it is better to let it be an additional dividend to the public."

"If such a course were attempted, we could expect a great outpouring for the protection of invested capital. It would be the greatest thing since the great physical burden of the railroads—needless weight of its rolling stock. A freight train is several times the weight of the locomotive, and a passenger train is twice the weight of the locomotive. The cost of pulling empty trains is needlessly large."

"On the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton, the old types of engines and cars will be replaced by better types. Our present fuel guarantee free use of lands. We will never proceed against anybody for infringement of our patents."

The third step would be that of expediting the removal of the freight carrier. By speeding up our freight over the preliminary part of its journey on the D. T. and I. we have shortened the time of its delivery by from seven to 14 days. This means our product gets to the people from seven to 14 days quicker than it used to. It means we carry on an average $30,000,000 in undelivered products than otherwise."

After removing this dividend drain, the second step would be to remove the great physical burden of the railroads—needless weight of its rolling stock. DOWN PROPOSED CUTS IN TAXES ON SMALL INCOMES

Big Majority Votes Amendment Out

'ROUND ROBIN' SIGNED BY 28
Two Per Cent Basis On Levy Rejected 46 to 28

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Three proposals carrying reductions in the taxes on individuals having moderate incomes were voted down today by the Senate by overwhelming majorities. Discussion led to a hot political fight which culminated in an announcement by Senator Penrose, in charge of the tax revision bill, that on Wednesday there would be a modified resolution calling for continuous 24 hour Senate sessions until the revenue measure was disposed of.

A "round robin" pleading signatures to remain continuously at the capitol, or within call, beginning Wednesday, was signed by 28 Republicans and Senator Penrose said he hoped that he tomorrow there would be 48 Republican signers, or a necessary majority to put the resolution through.

The first tax amendment defeated today was that by Senator Gerry Dwyer, Rhode Island, proposing that the normal tax rates be two per cent on the first $5,000 of income, four per cent on the second $5,000, six per cent on the third $5,000, and eight per cent on all over $15,000. The vote was 46 to 28.

Johnson voted for the amendment, and Senator Dwyer, however, lost. The second amendment, by Senator Harris, Democratic, Georgia, proposing that the rate on the first $4,000 of "earned" income as defined, be reduced from "normal" income to four per cent and the rate on the second $4,000 four per cent with the rate all over that eight per cent, lost 46 to 22.

The third roll call was on an amendment by Senator Walsh, Democratic, Massachusetts, proposing a three per cent rate on the first $5,000 of income and a six per cent rate on the second $5,000. This was defeated 46 to 21, with Republican La Follette supporting it.

After the first amendment had been defeated, Senator Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, put forward a compromise designed to show that the amendment would add more of large incomes to a greater degree than it would those with small or moderate incomes.

"There is a feasible and practical system of financing railroads by which these contributing money will be in positions to add directly to the success of the undertaking. If the money is to be used for the benefit of the stockholders, it is better to let it be an additional dividend to the public."

UNKNOWN U. S. HERO CHOSEN IN CEREMONY

Select Soldier's Body To Be Honored At Arlington
Bouquet Is Placed On Casket of Fallen Doughboy

CHALON, MAINE, Oct. 24.—America's "unknown soldier," who will find an honored resting place in the national cemetery at Arlington, Va., was chosen here this morning.

The ceremony of selecting the casket took place in a little improvised chapel in the city hall here, and in keeping with a request from the United States Government was very simple and brief.

Sergeant Edward F. Younger of Chicago was handed a small bouquet of white and pink roses by American officers present and advanced to the little chapel, passing through a line of French troops. Four caskets had been placed in the chapel by a committee brought from Bordeaux. Every one had been asked to leave the chapel before Sergeant Younger entered. He walked slowly around the four caskets three times, then stood before the casket of the "unknown soldier" and placed the bouquet on it.

The casket was then removed to another room and prepared for its long trip to America. General DuRoi, commanding the French Sixth army corps, Major General Harry L. Rogers, quartermaster of the American army on the Rhine, and American Henry F. Nichols of the American military registration service were present.

The only words spoken at the ceremony were by General DuRoi, who said: "The French army feels deeply honored to pay a simple and loving tribute to the American unknown soldier."

Later the casket was placed in the rotunda of the city hall, which was decorated with American flowers and flags. The casket was draped in an American flag, the only flowers on it being the little bouquet placed there by Sergeant Younger.

Allege Two Are Shot By Soldier
Rumania May Act

HONOLULU, T. H., Oct. 24.—Private Frank W. Barker, 22, of Akron, Ohio, and Ernest C. Sprague, 21, of Parkersburg, W. Va., both of company H, 31st Infantry, are dead at Fort Shafter from bullet wounds alleged to have been inflicted by a soldier of the 31st Infantry, William C. McLaughlin, 21, of Edmonton, Alberta.

Officers said no cause for the shooting could be learned. McLaughlin will be turned over to the civil authorities.

ARMAMENT DELEGATES ASSEMBLE AT CAPITOL

Departments Filled With Glitter of Uniforms As Foreign Notables Pay Calls On American Officials

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Washington got a foretaste today of the ceremonies to come with the meeting of the armament conference.

Presence here of the army and navy representatives on the Japanese delegation to the conference and of three foreign military leaders—General Diaz of Italy, Admiral Raoult of Belgium, and General Diaz of Belgium—added to the glitter and color of uniforms.

Each of the visiting military parties as they paid formal calls on the President and on state, army and navy departments, were escorted by cavalry, and American army and navy officers in assisting in the receiving of the calls appeared in full uniform.

The Japanese, headed by Major General K. Tanaka and Vice Admiral H. Kato, were the first to begin their round of official calls on cabinet officers. Late came General Diaz and the officers of his staff. General Raoult and the Belgian general were next.

Next and Admiral Raoult and his officers called on the state department. The nearly noon the visitors, each party accompanied by its respective ambassador, proceeded to the White House. After making the calls separately, each military leader, as accompanied by the chief members of his staff, returned to the White House for luncheon with President and Mrs. Harding.

There was a round of dinners at the White House and at the various embassies tonight.

General Diaz visited the Walter Reed hospital and chatted with wounded service men. One presented to him said he had a wayward lover his mother country, Italy.

"Quite right," said the general, "but I want to see very Italian in an American conduct himself as an American."

"What are you going to do when you leave the hospital?" he asked another.

"Go back to work," was the reply.

"That's what I expected the general to say," said the other. "I have been wounded twice, and I find my greatest pleasure in life lies in work."

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA NEWS SERVICE IS AUGMENTED

In line with the established policy of The Fresno Morning Republican in covering the news of the entire San Joaquin Valley every day, the central California or valley department has been augmented by the addition of two experienced newspaper men and from now on three men will devote their entire time to this special service.

News is being gathered daily from some 125 special correspondents in as many towns of the valley and the department is reaching out into territory, which has heretofore been overlooked, with the idea of giving more extensive service which The Republican readers deserve.

Suggestions and constructive criticism from The Republican readers which will tend to better this service will gladly be received by F. T. Humphrey, valley news editor.

M. L. Coultrap, former Oregon newspaper man, and Ralph Cole, former editor of a Coalinga newspaper, are now members of the regular central California staff.

LABOR BODY NOT TO OFFER PLAN

Board Holds Hope For Settlement

displays its attitude. The carrier heads thus far have taken the attitude that they will have little to say in the conference, maintaining that the board's citation was directed mainly at the labor unions and that the roads were summoned simply because both sides must be represented.

The announcement from the signatories today placed ten of the eleven "big five" railroad organizations in a position to strike at present although all have announced a new vote will be taken after the labor board renders its ruling and working conditions decisions.

Declares Unions Are Together

CLEVELAND, Oct. 24.—W. S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers tonight declared "there is no open break" between the "big five" railroad transportation organizations and the organizations of shop crafts which have voted not to join the strike set to begin October 30.

"There is no open break. The situation is much overdrawn. Each organization is free to use its own judgment. Each organization preserves its own autonomy."

This was President Stone's reply when asked if the action of the union in voting not to follow the lead of the "big five" indicated an open rupture of relations.

Some subordinate brotherhood officials intimated, however, there was a strong possibility, in their judgment, that many members of other railroad labor organizations would follow members of the "big five" should they leave the service regardless of the leaders' instructions to the contrary.

Mr. Stone refused to comment on reports from Memphis, Tenn., that general chairman of the engineers brotherhood had received advice from him that it was not necessary for them to attend the Chicago conference until he knew which chairman headed the alleged statement and corroborated the report.

President Stone stated it was his understanding that the vice chairmen as well as general chairmen have been summoned to appear at Chicago conference with the labor board Wednesday. Asked what effect this action might have on the direction of the strike in case these chairmen are held in Chicago for some time, Mr. Stone said:

"It is unnecessary to leave any official in charge. The clerical force will take care of the work."

W. C. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen in response to telegrams from his general chairman asking for instructions regarding their appearance in Chicago Wednesday, notified them to obey the labor board's citation, adding that the "board's" action was understood by men as changing or cancelling instructions issued or permission given prior to October 21, date of board's order.

Concerted Action Is Planned

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—A program for "concerted action and harmony of effort" to prevent the up of the transportation facilities in the event of a railroad strike was decided on today by Attorney General Daugherty in conference with

United States district attorneys from five cities.

The district attorneys came from New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Buffalo and Indianapolis. They are to confer with Mr. Daugherty again tomorrow when instructions are to be sent their district attorneys to govern their action in the event of a strike.

Professing his disbelief in the possibility of a general strike materializing, Mr. Daugherty declared the conference was called for an "understanding in any contingency."

Beyond mention of the conspiracy laws he did not discuss details of the department's plan, but indicated it was believed by the strength of supreme court decision that the government has the right to protect itself from a paralysis of the country's transportation facilities and the power to use any laws applicable to accomplish that end.

"Uniformity of proceedings and policy was determined upon in any event," he said. "We did not discuss the merits or matters in dispute between the railroads and the employees. The Department of Justice takes the position it has nothing to do with the merits of the controversy."

"The department probably would concede that the men have the right to strike, that they even have the right to strike in groups. But it would not say they can strike in groups throughout the country without violating conspiracy laws by attempting to paralyze the government of the United States."

"The department would not concede there would be no violations of the conspiracy statutes for a great body of men all over the country to agree to paralyze the transportation facilities. The department would say they could strike peacefully but when it comes to the government's interests and interests of the public in these facilities the government has the power, right and duty to see that the owners of the railroads give the American people the service they are entitled to."

"More people are interested in the transportation facilities than there are in the controversy. This conference was for the purpose of obtaining concerted action and harmony."

Professing his disbelief in the possibility of a general strike materializing, Mr. Daugherty declared the conference was called for an "understanding in any contingency."

Beyond mention of the conspiracy laws he did not discuss details of the department's plan, but indicated it was believed by the strength of supreme court decision that the government has the right to protect itself from a paralysis of the country's transportation facilities and the power to use any laws applicable to accomplish that end.

"Uniformity of proceedings and policy was determined upon in any event," he said. "We did not discuss the merits or matters in dispute between the railroads and the employees. The Department of Justice takes the position it has nothing to do with the merits of the controversy."

"The department probably would concede that the men have the right to strike, that they even have the right to strike in groups. But it would not say they can strike in groups throughout the country without violating conspiracy laws by attempting to paralyze the government of the United States."

"The department would not concede there would be no violations of the conspiracy statutes for a great body of men all over the country to agree to paralyze the transportation facilities. The department would say they could strike peacefully but when it comes to the government's interests and interests of the public in these facilities the government has the power, right and duty to see that the owners of the railroads give the American people the service they are entitled to."

"More people are interested in the transportation facilities than there are in the controversy. This conference was for the purpose of obtaining concerted action and harmony."

FRESNAN DIES AT PALO ALTO

Bert Williams, War Hero With Canadians

News of the recent death at the Palo Alto government hospital of Bert Williams, a Fresnoan who saw more than three years of war service with the Canadian army in France, was received here yesterday by the local chapter of the Red Cross.

Williams, a Canadian by birth, joined the colors a year before America entered the war, and when discharged was becoming subject to the diseases which caused his death. He was buried with full military honors, "buddies" from the British, Canadian and American armies serving as pallbearers and guard of honor.

Williams resided and worked in Fresno before the war and returned to this city to again take up civilian life after peace had been declared. About 15 months ago his health gave way completely and he was found by the Red Cross, through the intervention of a friend, sorely ill in his room.

He was rushed to the county hospital and for a period of several months awaiting action by the Canadian government in his case, he was looked after by the Red Cross. In January of this year his home government assumed charge of his case, instructing a local physician to look after him.

In June, although his condition was but little improved, he made the trip alone to Palo Alto, hoping under the expert treatment at that institution to get back his health. But he grew constantly worse, his condition becoming critical some weeks ago.

Williams, hardly more than a boy in age and outlook on life, won the respect and admiration of all for his game but impetuous fight against certain approaching death. Always cheerful and appreciative, he thus gained as personal friends those Red Cross workers, government officials and hospital employees with whom he came in contact.

His case from the inception of his physical troubles, was especially closely watched by local Red Cross workers, who had befriended him. In response to their queries the letter of yesterday came from Palo Alto giving the details of his passing and the funeral services.

Writing to the chapter official Miss Mary C. Green, Red Cross nurse, said: "The grave as we left it, was banked with flowers. I left with the feeling that he had been paid the highest tribute in our power for his sacrifices. Pictures were taken of the firing squad, the grave and those, together with an account from the local paper, have been sent to his father."

Young Williams is survived by his father, David Williams of Vancouver, and other relatives in Canada. Recently the dead soldier's insurance was changed at the behest of the Red Cross so that the father, who is very ill, became the beneficiary.

Death was caused, said the hospital report, by peritonitis, kidney trouble, and tuberculous, all traceable to his war service.

COURT RECESSES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The supreme court recessed today to November 7, after handling down a few opinions of minor importance.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—A penitentiary sentence of five years imposed on J. Herman Dierkes in Cincinnati must stand, the supreme court today refusing the review the case. Dierkes was convicted on three counts based upon a statement made in June, 1918, that he "would rather serve a term in the penitentiary than wear a uniform in Wilson's Wall street war."

NOTABLES TO CONVEGE FOR LEGION MEET

Foch Principal Guest of Honor During Convention
Mme. Schumann Heink to Sing for Her Boys

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 24.—A notable gathering of famous war veterans and statesmen, will mark the third national convention of the American Legion here, Oct. 31 to Nov. 2.

Marshal Foch, commander in chief of the allied armies during the last months of the world war, is the principal guest of honor, but there are to be a number of others of great distinction. Marshal Foch, Legion official point out, commanded the greatest army, both in numbers and fighting ability, of which there is any authentic record in history. Beside him, the Legion has secured the aid of the great, Gough, Khan, Attila the Hun and even the hordes of Saracens that swarmed into Europe in the middle ages, were European forces. This will be a Legion first visit to the United States, and he has announced his greeting to the American people will be made at the Legion convention.

Representing Great Britain will come Admiral Sir David Beatty, of battle of Jutland fame. Former "kobe" of the American navy, who served with the British navy, have a warm admiration for Admiral Beatty, and the part he played in the one major naval engagement in which the German fleet engaged.

Belgium Lieutenant General Baron Jacques brings an official message and General Armando Diaz comes in a similar capacity from Italy.

American leaders will be represented by General Pershing, Rear Admiral R. B. Condit, Maj. Gen. March 11, Crozier, and thirty veterans of the world war, who have been awarded the congressional medal of honor, the highest decoration for courage which any American citizen can win. (Continued on page 10)

Following a short band concert the opening morning of the convention, Mrs. Ernestine Schumann Heink will sing "The Star Spangled Banner." The singer declined an offer of "expenses" at the time she accepted the Legion's invitation to be present, saying she would gladly come in sing again for "her boys."

The parade, in which 40,000 former service men are expected to march, will be colorful. Men in cowboy regalia, Indian veterans in full regalia, and towns in costumes decked with corn blades are among those who will participate. Airplanes and tanks will have a part in the parade. Allied flags will give color to the streets through which the marchers wind.

A western rodeo is to be staged by members of the American Legion and all of whom are stockyard workers. Five women "broncho busters" will also do their part. Hugh Stenhouse, Dan Harrison, and other rodeo stars are among those who will participate in the rodeo.

A number of American films, which made distinguished records among them "Golden" "Buckaroo" are entered for the aviation meet, which will be one of the Legion's entertainments. There will be races, a basketball meet, and cash prizes amounting to $10,000 have been provided.

The problem of feeding the visitors, Legion officials believe, will be satisfactorily handled. Of course, they will not be allowed to eat in restaurants, but street vendors of "hot dogs" and "Santitas" will be allowed to sell. The Legion has been advised that local police will not interfere in case of this sort.

HOLDS PAPERS OF TOMORROW TO BE SMALL

Calls Circulation Law of Government Amateur
News Handling Policy of Present Day Is Criticized

HONOLULU, Oct. 24.—Herbert L. Bridgman, business manager of the Brooklyn Standard Union, told the Press Congress of the World today he believed the newspaper of tomorrow would be smaller than those of the present, on that point he asked:

"Why, in blind competition to print everything which everybody wants, print so much that nobody wants?" Mr. Bridgman asked. He expressed the opinion that the size of the newspaper would resolve itself largely into a commercial and mechanical problem, saying: "If the space can be sold for more than it costs it will be sold. Therefore, the newspaper of tomorrow, depending upon price of newsprint, labor and other materials of production."

"The retail selling price will doubtless follow the same law, but both size and price are the body, not the soul of the newspaper of tomorrow."

"Whatever may happen, it is my belief that if they were smaller they would be better, though this is a living point. But how many features, supplements, inserts, juniors and other appendages could we discard with resignation and advantage?"

The New York Mercury reported the miraculous retreat of the American army after the battle of Long Island which saved the Revolution. In three lines, the Mercury covered the battle of Waterloo in two sticks. We print first page telegraphed columns of the beastly oratory of beastly men and women in a San Francisco hotel."

Mr. Bridgman said he would not admit that the newspapers have lost their power nor outlived their usefulness even though the end of personal journalism of which Greeley, Horner and Raymond were the "signal lights."

Considering other phases of the newspaper of tomorrow, he said: "Nothing is more certain than that the newspaper of tomorrow will be a different animal, created in spite and ignorance, were repeated every self-repeating publisher could replace, not because a gratuitous insult on the whole profession had been withdrawn and a standing premium on falsehood and official incompetence abolished."

"The whole newspaper of tomorrow would be demonstrated. Newspapers have firmly established their stand and code of honor and no more effective testimony of the fallacy and feebleness of the

Considering other phases of the newspaper of tomorrow, he said: "Nothing is more certain than that the newspaper of tomorrow will be a different animal, created in spite and ignorance, were repeated every self-repeating publisher could replace, not because a gratuitous insult on the whole profession had been withdrawn and a standing premium on falsehood and official incompetence abolished."

KING ASKS AID OF PERSECUTED

Ferdinand's Fortune Is Kept From Him

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 24.—Ferdinand King of Bulgaria, now in the hands of the British authorities, has asked the British government to help him to escape from his present position and to return to his country. The British government, which has been asked to help him, has refused to do so.

The king's request to St. Petersburg, which has been refused, has been made under the Treaty of Neuilly which gave the king the right to return to his country, but the British government has refused to do so.

OBSERVE ARMISTICE DAY

We understand that the Merchants Association of Fresno is to act today on the question of making Armistice Day a legal holiday.

We trust that the members of that association will take action this year that will be consistent with the action that should be taken continuously in remembrance of November 11.

There can be no objection to the general statement that it is possible to have too many holidays. It is possible. But we should have some holidays, and November 11, should be among them.

There will be more people for a generation to take an interest in the remembrance of what November 11 means than in any other holiday with the exception of July 4 and Christmas. It is true that Thanksgiving has become imbedded in our national life. It is true that the memory of Washington and Lincoln should be revered. But the importance of physically, by a cessation of labor, giving those who take an interest in the peculiar significance of the World War, to observe that occasion by gatherings and by ceremonies is one of immediate moment to every man who served in the World War, to every member of every family that concerned itself with the World War and to every citizen whose heart and mind were wrapped up in the drive that brought us to victory in the World War.

We have been sorry to see any tendency to regard the Armistice Day as anything but a community occasion. We were sorry for the action of the county American Legion in regarding this as a county affair. We shall look forward next year to an Armistice Day gathering of people in every community throughout the county. We think that Laton and Coalinga and Kerman and Friant, as well as Fresno or Reedley or Selma or Clovis, should have community celebrations of Armistice Day. We should make this a day of reverence rather than of holiday making. And we trust that the members of the Merchants Association, who from April, 1917, to November, 1918, joined so loyally in the good works that gave us an armistice day, will join in the official recognition of it.

UNLAW MAKING

Let us face frankly and candidly the fact that among the many advantages which our government has, it possesses one very decided disadvantage—a failure to furnish legislative leadership.

We have as fine an executive government as we desire. We get as good presidents as we want, as good governors as we want, as good mayors as we want. But do we get as good law makers as we want?

The evidence is all against it. Our mechanism of government does not work this way. Among the number of problems that are pressing upon the United States today, we have no one in a position to give striking force to the effects of public opinion in a legislative direction.

For instance, probably the most keen issue before the United States today is the problem of what to do about Europe. Not that we shall send aid to the sufferers of Europe—probably we are doing as much as we should. Not that we should interfere in the internal government of Europe, or that we should send soldiers into the war disturbed sections of Europe. Perhaps we should do nothing of the kind.

But we have no policy toward Europe in those matters in which it is imperative that we have a policy.

There is no one that can even tend toward having a policy about the settlement of our financial relations with Europe, the funding of the debts, the adjustment of tariff inlets to suit our needs as well as theirs.

Supposing today that any man in Congress with sufficient intelligence attempts to arrive at some program for the arrangement of our relations with Europe, he has no field of action in which he can try out his program. Neither the President of the United States nor any officer of the Senate or of the House of Representatives has any chance to make good on his own qualities of leadership or of development of policy. He finds himself checked by some provision of the constitution or of the laws.

What should he had here is not any change in the spirit of our laws, but of the mechanism of them.

We should have a means by which the executive of the United States can act not as the executive hodgepodge over Congress as he so frequently attempts to be now, but the freely chosen leader of Congress.

One very good illustration of this lack in our government is this very question of the adjustment of our financial claims upon Europe.

They should be adjusted on a basis of fairness to America and of fairness to Europe and upon reasonable consideration of what practically can be accomplished. There should be a recognition of the fact that Europe is in a sense insolvent—and again that it can and should and will pay in certain ways and at certain times.

As it is, we have groups of public opinion mulling around over this question in a way that may make a heated factional discussion of this problem, when it should be adjusted as a business issue between these two groups of people.

It is quite useless for us to lament the fact that no great leaders are arising out of Congress. We give them no chance to rise. We have made of the House of Representatives a committee grinding institution that finesses over trifles and then is driven in one direction or another by a whirlwind of thought on the outside. The Senate, to which we have looked as a thoughtful body, is falling into the same slough of committee operation, without getting at the same time, the advantage of business efficiency.

What we need is sharper action, more efficient procedure out of our government on the mass of legislation, as well as executive accomplishment.

WHAT OF EX-KINGS?

What shall the world do with its ex-kings? This is nearly as much a cause of worryment as it was in the days of Charles II of England and other men who pressed too hard, in the bygone centuries, the theory of the divine right of kings to do what they please.

In the days when the only way one king was gotten rid of was by taking on another, the thing was simple. The new king had the old one stabbed or poisoned or something deliberate of this sort. Later, when kings were first chased out of their kingdoms by an indignant populace, they were so astonished that they would quietly spend the rest of their days wondering what had happened. Charles X and Louis Philippe of France are instances of this sort. They had no means of their own, and lived a fairly respectable life on the charity of friends or other monarchs.

But now we have a new situation. No monarch but has warning from the day of his accession that he is likely any time to get an ejectment notice. He will discover suddenly that it is cheaper to take a floater than to stand trial. So they all have prepared for a rainy day. They are thrifty and set aside a certain portion of their income in foreign securities. They invest in real estate and stocks and bonds, and have a lot of spare cash stored in private dwellings not so easily escheating to the state as do royal palaces. Then when they are told that their room is more valuable than their company, they still have resources. William Hohenzollern took all these precautions, and had it not been for the fall of foreign exchange and the alien enemy custodian act in the United States, he would be living well at Doorn. Tino of Greece and the kaiserliche-koenigliche Karl were also thus well set up. They found eating in Switzerland if luxuriant at least comfortable.

But this provision for foreign monarchs is having its bad effect. It means that every ex-monarch is a political problem for the state. France, with its crop of would be kings for a generation faced the menace of revolution through their activity or the activity of those who would use them for their own private purposes. For years the government of France had to watch carefully to know whether some pretender would be made the object of a revolution. At least in one case the Third Republic was saved only by quick and extraordinary effort.

What can the world do with persons like Tino and Karl?

As long as we have no world law, it will always be said that there is no "legal" way to deal with them.

There were plenty of lawyers in England, ready to defend Napoleon from sequestration in St. Helena through the municipal law of their own nation. They denied the efficacy of international law to protect the world from such a menace as the Emperor of the French.

William Hohenzollern has been saved from trial before an international court by the conservative British reluctance to do anything for which there is no strict precedent.

And yet, the presence in Switzerland of ex-emperor King Karl has been a source of misfortune to the people of Austria and of Hungary. He is an active factor in efforts to disturb the smooth running of self government in those new nations. He is both the heir to a throne and a tool of politicians of one group or another. He is the excuse for uprisings. The money that he has is used to maintain mercenaries and to bribe officials.

What shall be done with a man like this? Should he be lynched by an illegal world proceeding, or should he be judged for his acts by a valid world court?

Should not Karl be accountable for what is treason against the world?

STANDARDIZING AUTOS

Roger W. Babson, in his latest weekly trade comment, points out some effects of the stabilizing of automobile merchandising.

There are to be auto markets, he declares, in which cars will be auctioned off in open competition. This, he declares, will be a crucial test of the value of cars. It will bring to the forefront all those cars that have merit built into them, and will shove aside those makes that have been pushed into the public attention by sales methods solely.

We can take it from this that it has been an advantage that the automobile manufacturing business has continued thus long in the experimental marketing stage. For the business of pioneering motor cars has brought out a great number of makes, some of them to be sure flashy, but a great number of them of such standard make that they will maintain, we can be sure, a vigorous competition on a basis of merit.

There are today in the United States something less than one hundred makes of automobiles. Of these many are just assembled cars, or variations of well known models. Some are merely adaptations of standards.

Some again are really distinctive cars, yet cars in which the distinction is based on some merit that cannot stand the acid test of use.

The cars which really differ so as to appeal to distinctive demands, and which are so well established in the public favor, and have such choice of construction that they can compete in any showing, will endure. This endurance test, however, will be severe, and will greatly reduce the number of cars to be offered a few years from now.

Will it reduce the number too greatly? Will automobile manufacturing be put entirely on a quantitative basis, a few factories turning out all the varieties of cars called for on a close margin of profit that will forbid further entry of competition?

While the number of makes will be greatly reduced, we cannot picture any such result. The proportion of taste to intrinsic merit, to service, will be such that there will always be room for car competition. The market will be standardized, but it will not be cornered.

Buried Treasure

Interesting, exciting, and probably profitable will be the expedition to discover the hidden treasure on Stevenson's Treasure Island.

Treasure hunters of that sort are full of thrills, and of hardship, and one in many thousands has succeeded.

Did you know that the modern treasure seekers are to use the one that Stevenson saw, or heard of, before he wrote his romance.

He too could have organized an expedition. But Stevenson was of Scotch lineage, and he knew of a way of getting far more treasure out of the map than he could have dug from the island in his center.

Stevenson's was buried treasure, too, and not easy to come by. But by hard work he dug it out, and when success had crowned his efforts the treasure was not only his, but all the world's.

There is doubtless much buried treasure in the islands of the East Indies, and gold under the mountains in many parts of the world.

But questing for it is always uncertain—usually profitless.

Spent half the time seeking for the buried treasure that lies about you and within you, as Stevenson did, and there is far less uncertainty about the result, and far more value to the treasure that you find, for you can share it with the world and have as much left for yourself as you had when you revealed its hiding place.

There are few people who cannot find at least some small store of treasure by digging. There is nobody who can find real treasure without digging.

If it lies within you to do some great and important work, the digging is all that endures necessary.

The highly-talented musician has to perfect his prodigies of labor before he can reveal his treasure to the world.

The literary genius cannot develop his particular treasure till he has read and considered and written—spending hours of toil to bring the wealth that is within him to the light of day.

You perhaps may not be a genius or even a person of talent. But somewhere there is a treasure that you can make your own by patient digging, persistent effort and by a genuine desire to be something more than a mere creature of circumstances. Dig and dig hard, and the treasure will be yours.

Waste time and energy seeking for treasure that some one else has buried and you will finish as most treasure hunters do, a forgotten outcast on some desolate and lonely shore.

Ten Years Ago Today

Many Chinese quakes were averted in Fresno this morning late Saturday night and yesterday in compliance with an edict which was issued by Li Hung Chen, commander of the revolutionary forces in China, proclaiming that all Chinese wearing quips after midnight of October 21 would be considered in sympathy with the Manchurian dynasty. Japanese and Chinese barbers shaved a harvest on these two days and it is reported that no less than fifty quips were shaved off the Oriental Y. In Japan's Hands

From the Philadelphia Public Ledger

If the Japanese Empire is prepared to abandon many of its present interests and privileges for the sake of the dismemberment, some of the quagmires and cliffs that the world has feared were in the way will prove no more than nitrogen and shadows. Tokio now hears that the empire has decided to make considerable sacrifices of interests that have been considered as vital for the success of the arms parity.

On Japan, more than upon any other of the six Powers, depend the success and the results of the conference at Washington. It must be so, for Japan is now and has been for a generation the disturbing factor in the Far Eastern equation.

The expanding Japanese Empire has thrown the Far East upon her, and she is now the center of the world for many generations out of balance. Like the sticks of a giant fan, the columns of Japanese penetration have thrust out from the crowded islands of the Mikado. First there were Korea and Formosa. Then there were Manchuria and Szechuan. Then the Twenty-one Demands and Shantung. Followed the mandated islands. There is now Siberia, with the Eastern Siberian, the hybrid governments and the strange, mixed vague business that is going on in what used to be the czar's Pacific provinces. These things have placed the will of the Far East and made fertile its reaches for the seeds of war.

If Japan is prepared to make sacrifices in certain of these matters, well and good. If the voice of the imperialism is muted and muted and Japan is ready to abandon some of its privileges and interests, whether these are "facts accomplished" or not, the conference should move forward steadily from its first hours. The seeds of war, admittedly existing in the Pacific and the Far East, will never germinate if Japan is willing to place its empire in a fair way of making sacrifices.

For it is no secret that unless Japan can be persuaded that the days of imperialism and military expansion are coming to an ending, the conference can be no more than a half-success at best. Unless the island men are willing to respect territorial integrity, to accept the principle of self-determination, to give up the dream of a mighty Yellow Empire that shall stretch from the Arctic Circle to the equator and from the Marianne Islands to Kashgar and Yarkand, a cleared world is a far off thing. America wants a fair and just settlement of these menacing things. She wants and has asked for the opportunity to begin dismantling the principal and the empire, regarding their present positions in the Orient and its waters, are content to bow in obedience to the loss of things as they are, divided by principle and by the fact that Japan is in the hands of the conference.

Japan can make or break the conference. She is the key-power in the Pacific. On the line of the conference, she is the blame or the credit for failure or success. Unquestionably Japan will be called upon to make sacrifices. It is the considered, cold opinion of the world that she should.

Japan senses this and understands it. She seems to be moving to meet it.

ECONOMICS AND THE SHORT SKIRT

From the Springfield Republican

The economic coincidence between the depression in the textile industries and the decree that women's skirts shall be lengthened is very striking. Since the war, the length of materials caused by the tremendous clothing requirements of the armies. A few inches less in the length of every woman's skirt saved out amazingly. The short skirt, however, met with instantaneous favor and proved immensely popular. It was an emancipation of the legs. It was a liberation of the men liked it as well as the women.

The board of directors of the Associated Dress Industries of America met in New York City on Saturday. It was an important meeting. The board of directors of the dress industry was the issue considered—purely as a business proposition. To be brief as possible, the longer skirt was promptly induced. By these and-headed manufacturers. What particularly interests one is that they had behind the Paris dressmakers in reaching their decision. For the dressmakers, the board of directors of the Associated Dress Industries of America, therefore have officially put their stamp of approval on the longer skirt. This means that manufacturers of dresses, over the world will take up the matter in their respective organizations for individual action. The membership of the Associated Dress Industries of America is national, and the decision of the board will be before each member in a few days. This is the first official endorsement of the longer skirt by the dress manufacturers of the United States.

The Paris dressmakers are a powerful set of fashion moguls, as everyone knows, yet their "edict" is undoubtedly highly agreeable to the textile and clothing manufacturers of Europe and America. Much could be written on "An economic inter-

Letters to the Editor

Against Parking Ordinance at All

Editor Republican: Referring again to the present and proposed parking ordinance, and more particularly to the question of the postponement until the first of January, 1922, of the new ordinance, I would like to give my views of the same.

At the meeting of the Merchants' association it was proposed by Mr. Kahn, owner of the Wonder, and agreed to by Commissioner Aston, that the new ordinance would be held up until after the holidays because it might interfere with the Christmas trade.

Now, as before stated in my other letter, Fresno is a country town and our wealth depends upon the wealth of the farmers, and if the parking ordinance is held up until after the holidays, such as Mr. Kahn seems to think, how much more will it keep them out of town on the holiday day, when there is no special occasion or attraction to bring them here?

I wonder if the public knows that the extent of the new ordinance is from Twiggum street in the north to Inyo street (five blocks distance) on the south, from H street on the west to I street (four blocks distance) on the east. In fact, all of the principal business district under the city's control. Further, with the parallel parking there will be only room for one car where there are now three cars.

I was talking with one of the judges and he said that in nearly every case where he had a farmer up before him for violation of the parking ordinance the farmer would say: "You have got me this time, but never again will I be only one or two dollars in your town."

I believe that an ordinance that is an detriment to the city's welfare, and where there is as much at stake, the commissioners should not have to shoulder all the responsibility, but that a special election should be held to determine the issue.

"Diggers" Have Been Eliminated

The consensus of opinion among the leaders of the American corset industry is that this sudden tilted corset is less rigid, more in conformity with the natural lines of her figure, and all together more beautiful than at any time in the past. Elastics and textiles have to serve extent replaced the inflexible steels of yore. Diggers have been eliminated—prejudging ends of stays have been eliminated and all "pinches" have been removed.—Continental Press News Bureau.

IRISH TENOR HERE TONIGHT

Will Open Season of Musical Club

Allen McQuinn, the Irish tenor will appear in concert this evening at the White theater, this being the first attraction to be presented this season by the Fresno Musical club, for the convenience of subscribers, who have not yet received their reservations, the secretary of the club will be at the box office from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. today and from 7 o'clock this evening until the opening of the concert.

Allen McQuinn is said to have a personality which is exceptionally pleasing and his voice and style much resemble John McCormack's. Although he is only just thirty years of age, he has been a wanderer until a few short years ago. Destined for the priesthood, he quickly gave up that idea, went to Canada and there did a little of everything. He worked on a railway, he ranched, he worked for others and himself, he mined in the Klondike, and returning to the railroad, he was promoted to the position of foreman in the Canadian Pacific, where he was in charge of the roundhouse in Brandon, Manitoba. Everywhere he went, he was winning and after having a position in a cabaret, he was "discovered" by a vocal teacher, and has since devoted his entire time to a professional career. He particularly excels in Irish songs, though his other numbers are intelligently and beautifully interpreted.

The program which he will give this evening is a different one from that announced a few days ago. It is as follows:

Where'er You Walk.....Hamlet

Macbeth.....Macbeth

Peggy Daw.....Old Irish

in Dublin's Fair City.....Old Irish

Ballymore Ballad.....Old Irish

Plaisir d'Amour.....Martini

Warning.....Glendora

Tuberculosis Work

To Be Discussed

The tuberculosis committee of the Pactor Lecture club has called a public meeting for this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the clubhouse. The board of supervisors of the county and representatives from the city and organizations of the city have been invited to be present, as Mrs. E. L. M. Tate, Thompson, executive secretary of the California Tuberculosis Association, will interpret the tuberculosis work now being done.

BOND STOLEN

A gold watch and a $50 liberty bond, valued at $140 were stolen from the house of Miss Zakaria, 1914 Kern street, Sunday night according to a police report. The burglary was investigated by Inspector J. M. Allen.

Consable H. E. Staley of Selma has reported thieves secured automobiles here, shot gun shells, a fur cape, and a watch from the Oriental Cycles at Selma Sunday.

HOW TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

A Cincinnati Barber Tells How to Make a Remedy for Gray Hair.

A well known resident of Cincinnati, Ohio, who has been a barber for more than forty years, recently made the following statement:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce bay rum, 1 ounce hair oil, 1 ounce glycerine, 1 ounce castor oil, 1 ounce lemon juice. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look young, clear, not color the most delicate scalp, is not sticky nor greasy and does not rub off."

DELAY DECISION ON BOUNDARIES

Report On Kings River Storage Awaited

Boundaries of the Kings river water storage district will not be fixed until the executive committee receives the preliminary report of the board of engineers. This decision was reached at a meeting of the executive committee held yesterday afternoon. The board of engineers was given until November 25, the next meeting, to complete its report.

The purpose of the meeting of the executive committee yesterday was to fix the tentative boundaries of the water storage district. It is a member of the state executive board under the water storage act. W. E. Boone, chairman of the executive committee, at his request was present at the meeting.

Back Is Broken In Auto Wreck; Asks Damages

Damages amounting to $21,824.50 are asked in a suit filed yesterday in the superior court by Nellie L. Weir, 34, against George and L. E. Morison and the Georgia Casualty company.

The damages are asked as the result of an automobile collision between a car driven by the plaintiff and one driven by the defendant's son.

According to the complaint, the defendant company has issued a policy to the defendant, Morison, which indemnifies them from loss on account of bodily injuries accidentally suffered.

It is alleged that on August 23 of this year, an automobile driven by the defendant's son collided with one containing the plaintiff causing the latter to be thrown out of her car to the ground and partially run over.

The plaintiff contends that she was unable, before the accident, to earn $2,600 a year for the balance of her life. She also alleges that she spent more than $1000 for medical treatment and that her automobile was valued at $800.

Attorney Charles H. Warlow is representing the plaintiff.

Lions To Hear Talks On Fish Development

A fishing party will be indulged in by the members of the Lion's club at their weekly luncheon to be held at the Hotel Fresno at noon today.

While fish stories will be absent from the regular schedule of talks, there will be numerous discourses on the subject of the sport of fishing.

Speeches will be made by Jarvis Spencer, Bush Holman and Harry Aldrich. Each of the speakers will speak on the development of fish by the state, government and private organizations, by stocking the streams each year.

The meeting will be presided over by C. B. Jackson. Visitors from Dinuba will be entertained by the club members. The luncheon was the guests of the Kiwanis club on Thursday. Music of an appropriate nature will be given by well-known local musicians.

Two Commissions Are To Meet Today

Meetings of two city commissions will be held today. The playground commission will meet at 10 o'clock this morning and the planning commission will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The regular meeting of the fire commission which was to have been held yesterday afternoon, on account of a lack of quorum was postponed and will be held next week.

Small Boys Set Sheds Afire To See Engines Run

Two small boys residing in the 2400 Ross street block playing with matches and desiring to see the Fresno city fire department in action, set three sheds on fire in the Ross street block at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon according to Fire Marshal Ralph Williams.

The boys, whose ages are 6 and 7 years old respectively, were reprimanded by the fire department officials and their parents cautioned regarding letting children play with matches. The loss of the three sheds amounted to $400 according to Williams.

Autos Damaged

Two automobiles were damaged at 11:30 and 11:45 a.m. at 12:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon when a car driven by E. Garbeldin collided with a machine driven by Vern Elliott.

Sues For Damages

E. E. Coulson yesterday brought suit in the superior court to collect $238.67 as damages to an automobile as the result of a collision from Frank A. Curtin. The complaint was filed by Frank A. Curtin.

These whiter teeth mean safer teeth as well

No doubt the great reason why millions use Pepsodent is to get prettier teeth. It removes the dingy film.

But science has more important objects. Pepsodent brings five effects, and all of them mean better tooth protection.

The ruinous film
Film is that viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, gets between the teeth and stays. Old methods of brushing do not effectively combat it. So it often lingers long.

Film absorbs stains, making the teeth look cloudy. Countless teeth are thus made dingy.

Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Also of other serious troubles. Most of the tooth and gum attacks are now traced to that film.

Must combat it daily
After diligent research science has found two ways to combat that film. Many careful tests have

Fights starch and acid
Pepsodent does what fruit acids do. It multiplies the salivary flow. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva, to digest starch deposits that cling. It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva, to neutralize the acids which cause tooth decay.

Those are Nature's great tooth-protecting agents. Every use of Pepsodent multiplies their powers.

Effects are apparent
Millions now know the delightful effects. Any one who will can quickly see and feel them.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

There will be an important business meeting of the Y. W. C. A. committee for industrial and international institute activities at the hospitality center on Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

The international institute is endeavoring to reach the women of Fresno who may have an interest in the practical phases of club work. It is probable that many women would be willing to devote an afternoon or more each month to some group of girls who wish assistance in cooking, sewing or handicraft.

Miss Elizabeth Robinson may be reached at the hospitality center, 1560 San Diego avenue, telephone 1022.

Christina Fogel of Albany, California, comes this week to direct the activities centered at the Y. W. C. A. cottage on Trinity street. Miss Fogel is prominent in social service of the bay region and she has many friends among the Italian people of Fresno who will assist her in developing the girls' club and women's activities.

The Aonian club meets twice a month and in addition to studying parliamentary law, the club is starting a series of lectures, the first of which was given by William Glaser.

On Wednesday evening the United Ladies Aid society will hold a reception and open house for friends who are interested in the organization and its purpose.

The Blue Bird club, a recently organized club of 35 girls gives a Halloween party on Thursday evening. Other Halloween affairs are to be given during the week by the B. G. club, the Aonian and Astoria club.

Miss Kathryn Metzler and Mrs. Louise Smith.

The Western Star club is to have an evening for short stories on Tuesday. Miss Annie Wolf has charge and will tell something of her recent visit to Astoria.

Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Breeden who were complimented Friday night at a dinner given in their honor.

Working Boys' Club To Elect Officers

Officers to serve for the coming year will be elected at the weekly dinner meeting of the Working Boys' Club of the Y. M. C. A. tonight at 8:30 o'clock. Gus Shaver, temporary chairman of the club, will preside.

Gus Shaver, head of the physical work of the club, will outline a program for the club. A basketball team was organized at the last meeting. H. W. Platz, boys' secretary of the "Y" will also be present at the meeting and address the members.

Nickel Carton of Raisins Becoming Real Candy Rival

The nickel carton of raisins put out by the California Associated Raisin company is proving a formidable rival of candy and other confections in the east, according to George A. Osborn, manager of the Raisin company and The Herald, who is just back from a trip that took him as far east as Detroit. The attractive little five-cent package of raisins was conspicuous in cigar stores, lunch places, and almost everywhere that anything of the kind is sold. One large confectioner said to Mr. Osborn that the raisin was coming into general use through the nickel carton, and that it was coming in competition with candy sales.

Report Fall of Snow in Sierras

Fresnoans who spent Sunday high up in the Sierras report that snow fell to a depth of about four inches Saturday night and Sunday morning. Charles Dillon, city commissioner, who spent Sunday at his cottage at Bass Lake says that snow fell steadily last Saturday night, and he walked Sunday morning to find the ground covered with its first winter blanket.

Man Accused of Violating Parole

Probation Officer Akers yesterday recommended that probation granted to George Collins, who pleaded guilty October 11, 1920, to a charge of grand larceny, be terminated. Collins was at that time. According to the recommendation, Collins was convicted in Tulare county late July of a charge of petit larceny, and was sentenced to serve six months in the county jail, thereby violating the conditions of probation set down by the superior court here.

FIND STOLEN CAR

Sergeant Clifford Sayre and Charles Farnum yesterday recovered the automobile of Charles B. Ennis, 3038 Iowa avenue, reported stolen from Tulare street between 14 and 15th streets on Tuesday, Thursday October 20. The authorities stated the machine was found on the state highway north of Fresno and that before the thieves abandoned it, the car had been completely "stripped."

The KLIM demonstrator who is coming to see you sometime soon will tell you about a milk that is always fresh.

Imagine a milk that will not spoil. Sounds almost unbelievable.

But KLIM will keep for months in the original package. And KLIM is milk—as good as any milk you can buy.

Only the water has been removed—not another thing—and nothing added. So all you have to do to have fresh milk is take a few spoonfuls of KLIM and add the right amount of water.

It is good to drink. It is good for cooking. It is the one sure supply of FRESH milk for all times.

Spell it backwards

KLIM

FRESH MILK—POWDERED

In selected milk-producing districts the dairy farmers bring their milk to the receiving stations of Hermal-Sonke, who have discovered how to deliver this milk with all its original freshness, richness and purity into every home in the country.

They simply remove the water, which is 88% of the entire bulk. This leaves the solid portion of the milk in the form of a powder, which is called KLIM. When you are ready to use it, you simply replace the water, and it is just the same as it was when the farmer brought it in.

If you want to try KLIM at once without waiting to see the demonstrator, you can get it from your grocer.

KLIM is fine for cooking. It has all the properties of bottled milk or milk right from the cow. The same portion of cream, the same vitamins content, the same nutritive qualities—the same in every particular, with the added virtue that it is more easily digested.

The John Muir Parent Teachers' association will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock, when W. J. Cooper, city superintendent of schools, will address the meeting. It is urged that all parents having children in the school to present at this time.

The home economics section of the Garden Women's club met with Mrs. H. H. Herring, city superintendent of schools, at 3 o'clock, when Mrs. George DeGroot, president, presided. The afternoon was spent in a discussion of school lunches.

The regular club meeting will be held Wednesday, October 26, at the home of Mrs. W. M. Bacon on Van Ness avenue, the subject to be "Legislative Day." Mrs. J. C. Allison is chairman.

The high school Parent Teachers' association will meet in the reception room of the high school Wednesday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock. The nominating committee will make its report and the officers for the year will be elected. All members are urged to be present, as plans for the year will be discussed.

The East Side Country club met at the home of Mrs. J. H. Herring at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, October 21. Mrs. Edwin Ross entertained the members and guests with a refreshment talk on her recent trip abroad. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

At a meeting of the Atwater Women's Improvement club yesterday afternoon, Mrs. W. K. Worthen was elected president for the ensuing year. It is expected that the club will have a very active year.

Members of the Women's Improvement club of Newman have received an invitation to attend the formal opening of the Newman Colony club at that place next Wednesday afternoon. A dance will be held in the new building the following Friday evening.

A program of unusual interest will be presented under the auspices of the Bakersfield Woman's club Monday afternoon at Castle hall, when Stephen Mark, noted Chinese lecturer, will speak on "The Meaning of the Shantung Controversy."

Mark is the son of an early Chinese settler in California, and is himself a graduate of the University of California, from which he has degrees in chemistry and military science. He served with the American forces in the recent war, and still holds the commission of lieutenant in the United States army.

While at U. C., the young Chinese also won two gold medals in intercollegiate contests. He is an enthusiastic student of the far east question, and having always taken an interest in the interrelation of China and America, is well fitted to discuss the topic which is to form the subject of his talk Monday.

Of additional interest will be a program of native Chinese music, offered by Chinese pupils of the Hawthorne school, under the direction of Miss Anne Holmgren. Mabel Men will give a riddle, "The Cat and the Mouse," a group of three songs will be sung by Billy Lee; Sarah Fong will sing "Autumn," a reading will be given by Frank Lee, and a recitation, "The Cook," will be given by George Mou. In conclusion, 14 Chinese children will sing two verses of "America" in Chinese.

The Parent Teachers' association of the Culler grammar school will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening in the school house at 7:30 o'clock. A special musical and literary program is being planned by the entertainment committee. E. J. Buckman, school superintendent of Visalia will be the speaker for the occasion. A social hour will follow and refreshments will be served.

LAYS IN WINTER FOOD SUPPLIES

Edison Company Ready For Emergency

In order to forestall any difficulty that might arise in the event of a railroad strike, the Southern California Edison company, which at present has a crew of 2,800 men at work in the mountains near Shaver and Huntington lakes on its big power project, has laid in sufficient supplies to last all winter. It has been the custom of the company to early secure its winter supply of fuel, due to the heavy snows, but the threatened trouble in the railroads caused the company to act sooner than has been its custom, and now it is prepared to provide rations for the men until spring, in any event.

The Waterford Woman's Improvement club will meet at the library on October 27, at 2:30 p. m., at which time Miss Estel Broughton of Modesto, assemblywoman for this district will address the club. Miss Broughton is well known in this part of the state and whatever her subject may be, it is sure to be an interesting one.

Starts Abatement Suit Against Store

Abatement proceedings were instituted yesterday by District Attorney R. W. Stearns on behalf of the people of California against a public store on F street near Mariposa, which is conducted by Lucille Jones and Pete Condis. According to a complaint in equity which was filed in the superior court by Deputy J. C. Hammett, the establishment is being used as a house of prostitution. The complaint charges the boys as a public nuisance and asks that the nuisance be abated.

JIMMY MARSHALL MEETS CYCLONE GAVY TONIGHT

Drexel and Bonillas in Semiwindup.

Jimmy Marshall of Sacramento and Cyclone Gavy of Newman will meet in the main event of the American Legion boxing show at the Civic auditorium tonight. Both fighters are heavy hitters and in all their previous bouts have proven to put up the fight that the local fans like. Marshall proved himself as a heavy hitter when he beat Vernon Lynn here last year and since has been defeating some of the best boys in the northern part of the state. Gavy fought to a draw with Joe McEvoy at Haver, recently which speaks for itself. He is a fighter of the "Wild Cat" type.

Pony Bonillas of Newman and Mickey Drexel of Oakland will furnish the semi-windup. Both boys are clever scrappers and along with their cleverness carry a good deal of hard hitting which makes their bouts exciting. Bonillas knocked out Ted Levins in their bout on the last Legion card here. Drexel has been fighting on the local cards and in the valley with Joe Avery and (asa of this section can count on Drexel as furnishing a good fight from his previous bouts with Avery, Gene Bonillas and Chas. Fries, both of Newman will put on the special. Fries is one of the toughest boys in his class in the valley. Bonillas outlasted Fries as to speed but the latter made the up with the victory.

Chas. Smith will again appear on the card, this time matched against Al Brown. The remainder of the card will see Terry McEvoy battling Young Sweeney and Mike Romano facing Battling Carlo.

Ralph Coppe of Tulare will act as third man in the ring.

NAME CHOSEN FOR GRID TEAM

Closing Time Set For College Parties

"The Fighting Bulldogs" will be the official playing name for the football team of the State College of Fresno, according to an announcement made yesterday morning during the regular student body assembly.

President H. H. Brown, who was elected yesterday by a large majority over Walter Covington, Orange, and Gray will remain the college colors—after the proposal to have the colors changed to crimson and black was decisively defeated.

President McLane made several announcements before the regular business meeting was called to order by President McLane. He announced that a number of rooms were available for study during certain periods of the day; that social and evening parties were to be held promptly at 11 o'clock if they were to be held on school nights; otherwise on Friday and Saturday evenings; the parties would be allowed to continue until midnight. He explained that he preferred that all parties, which were to be held in the college, would be held either on Friday or Saturday evenings. No smoking was to be tolerated inside of the building, according to his announcement, and outsiders who smoke in the building will be asked politely not to do so, and if they persist in not doing they will be asked not to come again. He also announced that hereafter all telephone calls would be written on pink slips of paper and placed on the bulletin boards in the main foyer.

Mr. Hoover said he appreciated the opportunity given him to express at Washington newspaper conferences the policies of the department of commerce with regard to some of the pressing industrial questions.

"We have indeed great problems yet to solve," the message said. "I cannot but feel that if these questions are considered as business and not as industrial questions, we can find their solution in the background of every person's mind there is the fact that we are dealing not with mechanical things but that we are concerned with the problems of men, women and children."

"There must be in our discussions of these matters the dominating thought that the better control of economic forces is in fact simply the better control of the country."

Under unfinished business a proposed amendment to the constitution was brought up to the effect that any amendment to the constitution must be proposed a week in advance as provided and also must have the signature of three per cent of the student body appended before the amendment could be proposed.

The proposal was defeated after a very spirited discussion.

Says Marines Aid Haitian Government

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—American marines have given Haiti "the best government it has had in 30 years," and the American occupation should continue indefinitely, Major General George Barnett, former commander of the marine corps, testified today before a special Senate committee investigating conditions in Haiti and the Dominican republic.

General Barnett gave the committee details of his investigation of the conduct of the marines in Haiti and in this connection criticized former Secretary Daniels for refusing to declare that the report of the naval board of inquiry, headed by Rear Admiral Mayo, was not a reflection on him as commander of the marine corps.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Average just released by the American Trapshooting association show Art Riser, of Paris, Ill., to be the leader in the first quarter, 14 in the second, none in the third and 7 in the last. However, in the last two quarters they need a string of second team men, and practiced many trick plays and forward passes.

The Patterson eleven averaged but 135 pounds against their opponents.

Report Successes By Spanish Troops

MADRID, Oct. 24.—Important successes by the Spanish troops in Morocco—the occupation of Mount Arruit—was announced in an official communication this afternoon. The occupation took place this morning, the statement said.

Mount Arruit was one of the important outlying positions in the Metilla area captured by the rebellious tribesmen during the July disaster to the Spanish army in that region when General Navarro was taken prisoner and held as hostage.

BOUND OVER TO COURT

SHERBORN, Wyo., Oct. 24.—Earl McKenna was today bound over to the district court on a charge of first degree murder in connection with the slaying of the Sheriff W. S. McPherson, at Monarch, Wyo., on the night of October 1.

Witnesses testified at a preliminary hearing that McKenna opened fire on a sheriff's posse which was in the act of surrounding him to arrest him for bootlegging, and that McPherson dropped dead as the shot was fired.

OKLAHOMA ELEVEN LOOMSBIG AGAIN Will Be American

NORMAN, Okla., Oct. 24.—With ten members of the team that forward-passed and ploughed its way to the 1920 title in the lineup again, Oklahoma university bids fair to repeat in the Missouri Valley conference—the main conference west of the Mississippi. Four of these were placed on the all-conference eleven last year. One, "Big Bill" McKinley, received mention in all-American selections.

Oklahoma, at this writing, hasn't played any conference games, but its showing against the strong Oklahoma A. & M. and its work generally has aroused enthusiasm.

Harry "Dutch" Hill, back; Roy "Not" Swatek, fullback; Howard Marsh, end, and "Big Bill" McKinley are the big stars of the team, with Lawrence Haskell and Don Hamm vying for honors. Haskell, captain, is playing a star game at end.

Added to these are such stars as "Rain" Morrison, brother of the U. of California fullback; Myron Tyler, end and half; and Ronald Cullen, guard—all letter men.

Coolidge's line stacks up as the heaviest in the school's history, averaging 135 from end to end and 131 from tackle to tackle. The backfield is light and fast.

The game with Nebraska at Lincoln October 29 is Oklahoma's first real test.

CAL. ARRANGING FOR MEETS WITH ILLINOIS TEAMS

Track, Football Games
Planned In 1922

BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 24.—Arrangements are being made for annual contests between University of California and University of Illinois track and football teams which will be held in 1922 by the California Athletic Association. The contests will be arranged later.

Mr. Nicholas said he thought the program would be adopted.

NAME FOOTBALL FIELD AT O. A. C.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 24.—Athletic authorities at the Oregon Agricultural College have named the football field in honor of Dr. J. R. N. Bell, friend of the college for more than a quarter of a century, former member of the faculty, and at one time, mascot of the football team.

Dr. Bell has been confined to his bed by illness at his Corvallis home for more than a year.

Seeds for 4000 have been erected at the field as the first of a 30,000 capacity stadium. Building of the additional seats will be resumed as soon as money is available.

BLUE NOSE WINS IN SECOND RACE

HALIFAX, N.S., Oct. 24.—Blue Nose of Lunenburg today defeated Elsie of Gloucester, Mass., in the second international fisherman's race and won the sailing championship of the North Atlantic, captured last year by the Gloucesterman Esperanto.

TO HOLD SPEED TRIALS ON NEW S. F. SPEEDWAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—Preliminary speed trials will be held December 1, 1921, on the new automobile speedway being built near here by the Greater San Francisco Speedway association. It was announced recently. Drivers intending to enter the first speedway race, December 21, must make at least 100 miles an hour in the trials December 1.

Speedway association officials have announced that an electric track, will show the speed being maintained during the race by the various drivers, their relative position in the race, the number of laps they have covered and the like.

DEAD BASEBALLS USED IN JAPAN

SEATTLE, Oct. 24.—Baseballs used in Japan are no "dead" it is almost impossible to knock them out of the infield, according to a letter received here from Ross Stokke, manager of the Canadian Stars, a team of Seattle and Vancouver, B. C., semiprofessionals, now playing in Japan.

"The balls are so hard that they are used instead of the balls brought by the Americans. Pitchers have no trouble in holding the bats to the infield."

The Canadian Stars, up in September 14, when the letter was written, had won five and lost one game.

WASHINGTON HIGH LOSES

EASTON, Oct. 24.—The Eastern high school freshman soccer football team trounced the Washington Junior high school team of Fresno this afternoon by the score, 4 to 0.

Entry In Derby of Fishing Craft

The schooner, Elsie, snapped during a trial spin.

The schooner Elsie, skippered by Marty Walsh, will defend the trophy won by the Esperanto last year in the international fishing schooner race, the sporting event of the year for the Atlantic fishing fleets.

The Esperanto defeated the Delaware, the Nova Scotians' entry, last fall. Early last summer the victorious boat sank and was not recovered. The Elsie was chosen when it heeled four other macks in trial races off Gloucester, Mass.

JOHNNY CLINE GOING STRONG AT TIJUANA

Johnny Cline, last Fresno welterweight who has been fighting in and out of the state since his discharge from the army recently has been making a success in his fighting and since getting beat by Joe McEvoy in his last appearance here, has won all but one fight since leaving Fresno. Sunday he fought a ten round draw with "Young" Larry, colored fighter from San Diego at Tijuana. The previous Sunday, Cline hit Billy Conley with everything he had and carried off the decision by far. He is making a big hit with the fans in Tijuana.

It never rains
but it pours!

IT WAS "company night."
BUT WHEN I got home.
I FOUND the Browns.
HAD A sick baby.
AND COULDN'T come.
SO I chortled "Oh, joy."
WON'T SUE and I have.
SWELL EATS for two!
BUT NO, Sue said.
"YOU DON'T suppose.
I'D WASTE all this food.
JUST ON YOU!"
AND SO I said.
"LET'S PHONE the Smiths."
BUT THEY had headaches.
THEN WE tried the Joneses.
AND THEY fell for it.
AND WHEN grub for four.
WAS JUST about ready.
THE PHONE bell tinkled.
AND THE Browns baby was better.
AND A minute later.
THE SMITHS changed their mind.
AND THE Mikes fainted.
"OH, WELL," I said.
"THE MORE the merrier.
WHAT'S THE difference?
IF THERE isn't enough food.
I'LL FEED the males.
ON THE cigarettes that satisfy.
AND YOU women can talk.
AND BETWEEN the two.
WE'LL ALL be Satisfied."

MOUNTAIN ROAD GRADING URGED

Coalinga and King City Bodies Active

COALINGA, Oct. 24.—Members of the King City Chamber of Commerce are very much encouraged as to the outcome of their activities towards securing action from the state highway commission on the grading and paving of the remainder of the Coalinga-San Lucia lateral of the state highway, according to J. A. Pines, who passed through King City yesterday afternoon. Pines stated this morning that he called on H. H. Burns of the King City Chamber of Commerce and Burns produced a letter from Senator L. S. Higgins in which the senator stated his wish to appear before the commission next week in an effort to get action on the proposed work. A communication had also been received from more than half of the commission advising the King City people that the commission would meet next week to consider the proposition.

One of the highway engineers has gone over the route and stated that the section of the route through Long Valley would be the most difficult and expensive to handle due to the fact that all the rock and gravel would have to be hauled in. There is no rock formation along that section.

Cattle Are Gathered In Raymond District

RAYMOND, Oct. 24.—The fall gathering of cattle has started in the mountains. Many thousands range down in the valley to graze on the alfalfa and clover. The district is the lower and warmer altitudes.

On some ranges the permittees unite and gather their herds together through they were riding for one big company. That system, very much advocated by the forest service, is saving of time and horse-flesh and is much better for the forest. The practice, however, is not yet universal.

The fall gathering has none of the jollity of the spring. Everyone is busy with the work of the season and the riding itself has usually the inevitable accompaniment of snow. This year, the late hot weather has kept the riders from the forest, although still fairly good, dry and beginning to be a little short.

Baptists Meet at Ceres Conference

CERES, Oct. 24.—The meeting of the Central Baptist association here last week was filled with interest and music filled the three day session ending with a rally of young people Friday night at which 50 out of the 225 present came forward and dedicated their lives to the ministry. Rev. P. Carl Trux of Fresno delivered the sermon Friday evening.

At the election of officers for the association, Charles A. Beucher, of Fresno, was chosen moderator, W. R. Appleby of Waterford, vice moderator, and O. V. Wilson of Stockton, secretary treasurer.

Taft May Have Two New Newspapers Soon

TAFT, Oct. 24.—During the past few days, A. M. Franklin and P. G. Penabody of San Francisco were looking over the field with the idea of installing a printing plant to be followed by the issuing of a daily newspaper. Though informed that Taft is soon to have a labor paper they appeared of the belief that this would in no way change their plans. They were working in conjunction with the heads of the proposed labor paper.

With the installation of a paper by Franklin and Penabody and another newspaper by the labor organizations Taft will have five papers.

Franklin and Penabody and another complete plant ready for shipment and are now preparing to have it arrive in Taft in the near future.

San Joaquin Boys Organize Pig Club

SAN JOAQUIN, Oct. 24.—Representatives of the agricultural extension service were in San Joaquin yesterday and organized a local boys' club. A pig was given by the extension service to each boy. Many of the boys will be required to keep a careful record and when results are made known the boy having the best record will be awarded a trip to Davis university. The club will be organized by the extension service.

Members of the club are: Dale Curtis, Worth Hask, William White, Claude Hamilton, Clyde Hamilton, Howard Hamilton, Ray Green, Palmer Elliot, Hollis Lunge, Aldo Marocco, Alfred Jossani, Harold Smith and Paul Curfey.

Kings County Boys Win Honor At Davis

HANFORD, Oct. 24.—Agricultural club representatives attending the annual convention of clubs of the state at Davis, Calif., returned with interesting reports of the meeting and bringing in addition to an individual cup won by Donald Pickering, son of Charles Pickering, of Hanford. Several other honors, including third place in the contest for livestock judging. Sixteen Kings county boys attended and the team winning the individual cup was composed of Donald Pickering, Ray Hall, George Mark and Theodore Burr. The Kings county delegation was championed by Ben S. Davis, county leader of agricultural clubs.

Smith Funeral To Be Held Tomorrow

LANDSAT, Oct. 24.—Funeral services for A. D. Smith, Lindsay pioneer, who died at his home here Saturday, will be held at the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Parks, an old time friend of Mr. Smith, will conduct the services. Interment will be in Olive cemetery.

Vicklund Funeral To Be Held Wednesday

CLOVIS, Oct. 24.—The funeral of Mrs. Vicklund, wife of Alex Vicklund of Clovis, who died here on Sunday, will be conducted at the Home Undertaking parlors on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in the Clovis cemetery.

ACCUSED MAN ON STAND IN MURDER TRIAL

Other Witnesses Also Called To Testify
For Defense
Judge Asks That Case
Be Brought To Close Today

Wong Kim, accused of the murder of Ah Wah on the 12th of October, yesterday took the witness stand in his own behalf as the last defense witness. The defense undertook the offering of their testimony on Saturday and it will be concluded today. The prosecution will then offer rebuttal testimony and the case given to the jury, probably to-night.

Wong Gee, a Del Rey store keeper, was called to the stand to testify for the defense yesterday. He testified that while Wong and his companion, Sing Hing, a confederate, were eating lunch in his establishment there was talk of the purchase of a gun and soon afterwards he heard shooting in his back yard. He refused the shooters, claiming that it would bring the constable.

Constable Hart was then called to the stand. He stated that he heard shooting in the Wong place and went to investigate. He said that the shooting was restrictedly explained and therefore conducted no further investigation.

District Attorney D. W. Stearns and Assistant H. J. Carling were in Del Rey on Saturday after the trial, where they discovered a piece of board which contained several bullet holes. Gee testified these were made by the shooting on July 11. The board was admitted as evidence.

Hart testified that an automobile which was standing in front of the Gee place. He stated that it was not a new machine but an old one, thereby contradicting previous testimony.

The prosecution is conducting very little cross examination of defense witnesses as to the shooting, claiming that it merely substantiates their theory, that it was the defendants trying out a new gun before committing the crime.

Seek To Show Alibi
Testimony for the defense is an attempt to bring out the fact that the defendants were in Del Rey or driving in their automobile at the time of the murder is alleged to have occurred, between 12:30 and 1 o'clock.

A Japanese fruit contractor testified that he saw on Lincoln avenue in his automobile when the defendant's automobile passed him. He stated that he was firing a fire at the time. When he started and proceeded to where Armstrong avenue, an automobile crossed either in front of him or behind him, going at a high rate of speed. In an effort to avoid a collision, he lost control of his car and that was the last thing he did know until he regained consciousness at the hospital.

The greater part of defense testimony was offered by Chinese and Japanese. No explanation of the footprints found in the vineyard on the Gatom ranch has as yet been attempted although prosecution witnesses claimed that these footprints corresponded with the shoes worn by the defendants.

Judge C. E. Beaumont, who is presiding at the trial, asked that the case be concluded today if possible. There is a probability that a night session will be held if the case can be concluded this evening.

The trial of Sing Hing, accused jointly with Wong, was continued yesterday until November 1. A venire which had been ordered was discharged and a new venire ordered.

Wife Leaves Him; Charges Cruelty

(Cruel and inhuman treatment is charged in the divorce complaint of Mrs. J. L. Little, filed yesterday in the superior court. According to the complaint the couple lived together less than three weeks before Mrs. Little left their home for Long Beach, announcing that she would not return.

Little alleges that he purchased a new home at Selma for them, comprising 1 1/2 acres. Mrs. Little, he claims, became dissatisfied and the couple resided in a rooming house for one day. Mrs. Little, he states, then left for Long Beach, later writing that she would not return and stating that their marriage was a mistake.

The couple were married August 2 of this year and separated on August 22.

SOON TO FILE INITIATIVES

Committee Leaves For
Sacramento Tomorrow

As the aftermath of the approving of two initiative measures that were introduced at a meeting of the San Joaquin Valley Commercial Secretaries' association at Visalia last Saturday, a committee composed of L. D. Blodgett of Bakersfield, H. E. Patterson of Fresno, Guy Windrem of Madera and George T. McCabe of Muleto will journey to Sacramento tomorrow to file the initiative petitions with the secretary of state.

According to H. E. Patterson, president of the secretaries' association, an active campaign will be instituted to obtain the required amount of signatures necessary to put the measures on the ballot. From various estimates volunteered by local attorneys, the number of signatures that will be desired will approximate between 35,000 and 45,000.

The two initiative measures, it is said, are not in conflict with the so-called water and power act initiative recently made public, according to Senator L. L. Dennett of Modesto, who is the legal adviser of the association. The two proposed measures, one of which would place public utilities under the same control of the railroad commission as is now exercised by that commission over privately owned utilities, and the other providing that such public utilities should be subject to the same taxes as privately owned utilities, it is believed will remedy the existing difficulties surrounding the power fight between Los Angeles and other sections and communities in the state over the former's alleged "grabbing" activities.

START FIGHT FOR DEPORTEE

Five Hundred Petition
For Stay

Five hundred signatures have been obtained on a petition to be presented to the secretary of labor asking for a stay in deportation proceedings against Young Park who was ordered deported to Korea for an alleged violation of the immigration laws, according to A. P. Harris, who is making a fight for Park's freedom. These signatures have been secured from church members who were favorably impressed by his story.

According to Park, his home was broken up by his mother for funds whose entrance into the United States was effected illegally by Park himself. He claims that his wife asked that the mother in law be brought into the country and cared for by him.

After she was brought in, he claims, she caused the young wife to become infatuated by another man and leave home. Park wants his freedom so that he might care for his two baby children who can not leave the country in the event that he is deported. There is no provision in the immigration laws for persons with which the family of a deported man can be sent from the country. Harris, who was retained on the case without compensation, has forwarded letters to Congressman H. E. Harbison and to the secretary of state asking that the orders for deportation be rescinded and that Park be placed on probation for a period of time.

According to Harris, the churches in Fresno have taken an active interest in the case. Those particularly interested are Rev. Broderick and G. A. Wheeler, missionary church worker. Jail officials, with whom Park has come into contact with during his three months imprisonment have spoken well of the young Korean and are willing to help him in every way, Harris stated.

It is probable that some communication will be received before the end of the week regarding Park's case.

Petty Offenders In Police Court

Twenty seven motorists were fined by Judge George B. Graham yesterday on charges of violating state and county automobile regulations. They were cited into court by Traffic Officers J. O. Brane, W. L. McCarthy, R. Seward, E. J. Bradley and J. A. Scott.

P. Radiah of Reedley was fined $10 on a charge of cutting in front of another automobile. The complaint was made by Officer J. O. Brane, J. H. Ford of Reedley and M. Arrandine of Del Rey, similarly charged, were each fined $20.

Charges of having no tail lights caused $10 fines to be levied against H. Lufentian, W. Stepanian of Selma, A. E. Failure to have operator licenses caused $10 fines to be paid by E. W. Vahl, 27 Broadway, H. Bissenden, 141 M street, Sherill Gregory of Selma, D. Vance of route B, and Alex Genden. Adjustable spotlights caused H. C. Teramita, Schreiber, 1265 Parr's street, and W. H. Silberschmidt to pay $10 fines each.

H. L. Bishop of Kingsburg and P. N. Reinhardt, 2129 Holly street, were fined $10 each when arraigned on charges of having only one headlight. J. Valencia, 125 Yosemite avenue, charged by J. A. Scott with speeding, was fined $10.

A fine of $10 was paid by J. R. Hingine, 922 C street, charged with having no certificate of registration. Joe Harbison, charged by E. J. Bradley with driving a truck on Kearney boulevard, paid a $10 fine.

Collect $3,000 For New Legion Home

Collections amounting to $3,000 have been made up to yesterday in the drive for $15,000 to build a new home for Fresno Post No. 4, American Legion, according to E. S. Waterman, campaign manager. Roy Harrington, commander of Fresno post, with Waterman, spent the entire day yesterday in canvassing the city on

CHASE OSBORN AT CONFERENCE

Fresno Editor Leaves
For Washington

Chase S. Osborn, Jr., editor of The Republican and The Herald, left last night for Washington, D. C., to attend the conference of the powers on the limitation of armaments, called by President Harding and to convene on November 11, Armistice day.

Enroute to the east Mr. Osborn will stop in San Francisco today to attend a conference between a Fresno committee and Elmer Cox, president of the Sugar Pine Lumber company, in regard to the location in this vicinity of the $5,000,000 lumber mill and logging railroad project.

From San Francisco he goes direct to Chicago, proceeding to the national capital in the event the railroad situation has not cleared. If a tie up of transportation is averted, he will visit Detroit, New York and Philadelphia to attend to several business matters before going to Washington.

Mr. Osborn plans on reaching Washington about a week before the conference opens and will remain during the entire session, provided it is not prolonged over an indefinite period, and conflict with his other plans. It is his opinion that the issues coming before the meet are of such importance as to continue its deliberations through the winter months.

His particular interest in the conference will be focused on the relation problems in the Orient; will have to discussions on the limitation of armaments.

The drive. A large number of workers will be sent out today to carry on further work of the campaign. Waterman announced that more than 50 Fresno business men have pledged their support to the campaign. All of the workers are confident that the drive for funds will "go over the top" within a short time.

Diet List Prepared For County Hospital

A complete diet list which has been worked out to cover all classes of cases has been submitted to the board of supervisors by Dr. Herbert O. Collins, director in charge of the Fresno county hospital. This list contains more than 30 typewritten pages. Diets are prepared at the order of the attending physician and are prepared by the dietician. There is a ward diet for ordinary use when there are no special orders for the patient.

Issue of September 20th.

Heavy Raisin Crop
In Kerman District
Kerman—Many Thompson raisin grovers in the Kerman and Biola districts are finishing picking their crops, and as the bunches are put on the trays, the vineyardists begin to realize that they are harvesting the heaviest crop ever produced in these two Thompson districts. This week Armand Hagopian completed picking his full-bearing twenty-acre vineyard and found that he had over 26,000 trays and that he would deliver to the California Raisin Association Raisin Co. something over 80 tons of raisins. Other reports of bumper crops are coming in as the last of the crops are being put on the trays.

The Minor-Thornton property on account of its splendid location is the most desired raw land proposition on the market at the present time. Just west of the city of Fresno on Shields Avenue, hardly twenty minutes' drive from the heart of the city.

Shields Avenue is widely known as one of the best roads in the county and leads from the highway directly into the heart of the rich Biola district of which Minor-Thornton Lands are a part. Very soon it will be almost impossible to purchase land of this quality at any reasonable price.

This is probably the heaviest Thompson producing district in California and you need go to no extra expense for water as the ditches furnish it in abundance.

This proposition deserves your serious consideration.
